For Immediate Release

Salud-Arte would like to thank all of the artists that have applied to the calls for art at University Hospital through the Salud-Arte Web Site. We have been overwhelmed with the response. Please remember to check back in the near future for a new call for artists to be released very soon.

The artist selection committee, made up of Arts Professionals and UHS Staff and Leadership was very impressed with the overall quality and variety of applicants. We are pleased to announce that the following artists have selected for the calls listed below.
